Today is Easter Sunday and our first reading during the Easter season will always come from Acts of the Apostles. Usually, the first reading is from the Old Testament with the exception of the Easter season. Luke 's gospel ends with Jesus ascending to heaven.

He then goes on to write Acts of the Apostles which begins with Pentecost and traces the early church. These writings are the only records we have of the early church and they are invaluable to us.

Each Easter, the first reading is Peter's first sermon to the Gentiles, an extremely important speech because it contains the core truths of Christianity. Up until this time, Peter thought his mission was to the Israelites. However, Peter had a strange dream in which he was told to slaughter animals and eat, but he refused saying he would eat nothing unclean. A voice in the dream says, "What God has made clean, you are not to call profane." Following the dream, servants come asking him to visit Cornelius, a Gentile. Peter would not have gone into Cornelius' house because it was considered unclean, but based on the dream, he enters and delivers this sermon to them.

Our second reading comes from Paul's letter to the Colossians in which he reminds them that they were raised with Christ in baptism. This fact affects the way they live their lives. Remember that infant baptism would not begin for several more centuries; only adults were baptized. The good news that Paul proclaims is that not only is Christ raised from the dead, but those who are baptized into Him are also raised from the dead.

Today we read our gospel from John and it is only in John that "the beloved disciple" appears. He is not mentioned as being at the tomb in the other three gospels; in fact, he's not mentioned at all in the other three gospels. He is first mentioned in John at the Last Supper and then remains a major figure in the post-resurrection appearance stories. The fact that this person is never named is John's way of telling us that the beloved disciple functions in the story not as a person, but as a symbol. He symbolizes the importance of having a loving personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Note that the beloved disciples gets to the tomb first but waits for Peter to come. Peter comes to no conclusion as to what happened but the beloved disciple enters the tomb and "he saw and believed." John is telling us that although authority, represented by Peter, is important, it is love that enables a disciple of Christ to believe in the resurrection.

All of that is consistent with what we've been exploring in our Lenten homilies, ie., how Jesus dealt with sin, with sinners, with compassion and with forgiveness. It can all be summed up in his words to the Pharisee Simon concerning the woman known to be a sinner. Recall, she stands behind Jesus, they never exchange a word, she merely begins to weep so profoundly that she washes his feet with her tears and anoints his hair with oil. And Jesus says, "Do you know why her sins are forgiven? Because of her great love. Little is forgiven the one who does not love." And there lies the totality of this whole gospel event..

Take note today to listen to the bell carillon as we now have bells again at St. Patrick's. This carillon has been donated in memory of Joe Kohler.

The parish office will be closed Easter Monday and re-open on Tuesday.

During the month of January, the Saint Patrick Food Pantry distributed 32,045 pounds of food to 822 families. Total cost to the parish for January distribution was $1,417.27. Thank you for the very generous way you support this ministry. We have just completed a new floor in the Food Pantry thanks to a grant from the Erie Community Foundation, and we are now installing a new door for the entry.

Over the past century there has been a dramatic shift in Catholicism toward the south. For example, Europe has a total of 177 million Catholics while Africa has 177 million and Asia has 137 million Catholics. In North America, the United States has 71 million Catholics and Canada 15 million, but Latin America has 483 million! So it would seem only natural that the new pope would hail from the southern hemisphere. Let us pray that his holiness and simplicity can permeate the pompous atmosphere of the Vatican.

Belgium has long been THE Catholic country of Europe with a flourishing mature faith that went much deeper than, for example, the piety found in Ireland. But, like the rest of Europe, the church has almost completely died in the past 25 years. If you go to Brussels, undoubtedly the most beautiful church is Saint Catherine's. It far exceeds the cathedral, it's a magnificent gothic building, the largest church in all of Belgium with beautiful stained glass. It's a masterpiece. Last week, the Archdiocese of Brussels announced that St. Catherine's has been closed and sold and it will reopen in 2 months as a fruit and vegetable market. It's unbelievable that in a short period of time, the church has died in western Europe.

St. Patrick's Church will be the setting for an Interfaith Service on Thursday, Sept. 5, at 2 PM to honor all of the fallen war dead from Erie County. The names of each soldier from the county who died in war will be read and then taps will be played as part of the service. A large number of clergy will be participating as well as civic leaders. From church everyone can go to Dobbins Landing for the arrival of the tall ships. This event will mark the closing of the Perry Two Hundred celebration, and we're honored to be the site.

The Catholic Services Appeal is being conducted in all parishes of the diocese at this time of the year, and I encourage you to participate. At St. Hedwig's we are assessed $11,029 and at St. Patrick's we are assessed $38,500. I have to pay both of those amounts whether we receive it from parishioners or not. Will you please help by making a pledge to this year's CSA? Any money earned above the assessment stays in the parish.

Mildred, the church gossip and self-appointed arbiter of morals, kept sticking her nose into other people's business. Several parishioners were annoyed by her but feared her enough to maintain their silence. She made a mistake, however, when she accused George, a new parishioner, of being an alcoholic after she saw his pickup truck parked in front of the town's only bar one afternoon. She commented to George and others that everyone seeing it there would know what he was doing. George, a man of few words, stared at her for a minute and then simply walked away. He didn't explain, defend or deny. He said nothing. Later that evening, George quietly parked his pickup truck in front of Mildred's house.....and left it there over night!

A Moment of Reflection

Easter is early this year. Somewhere it is probably snowing outside. No matter; inside it is Easter, the Feast of the Resurrection. Inside is a word which denotes a space, but it is also a word that connotes a dimension. The resurrection of the Lord happened once after Jesus' death in a specific place and time, but it also happens over and over again inside of us in our time and place. We are an Easter people: alleluia is our song. Easter calls us to embrace new life. An awareness of the divine life within you enables you to see the magnificence and worth of others.

He is Risen!
