Today we celebrate the feast of our redemption; Christ has conquered death; it no longer has reign over us. During the next 50 days as we move to Pentecost, we will contemplate the post-Easter manifestations of Jesus, the meaning of his death and resurrection in our own lives and our call to be Christ's body through which he continues to touch human pain and heal broken hearts. In our first reading we now encounter a totally different Peter; not the babbling fool who never understands who Jesus is but a man transformed into faith and what he is preaching in this first reading is the basic catechism of the early church. He notes that he and the apostles "are witnesses" which assures Luke's readers that what they hear is exactly what Jesus proclaimed. Peter speaks of Jesus' suffering and death without melancholy because he knows how the story ends: God raised him from the dead. And, finally, he notes that he and the other apostles have been commissioned "to preach the gospel" and he preaches future divine judgment which was important to these early pagans.

Our second reading from Colossians we again hear an extremely early catechism while Paul insists that we MUST "seek what is above."

Try to recall in our gospel, the various author's accounts of the resurrection. John's tomb today has no angels; only an empty tomb that looks like the work of conspirators. It begins with the sober mindset of Good Friday still lingering—darkness, empty tomb, fear. These are all signs to John's story that there has been foul play. There are two clear signs of Peter's significance in that Mary goes first to him and that when he and the Beloved Disciple run to the tomb, the latter waits for Peter to be the first to enter. John peers into the tomb while waiting for the older and slower Peter to arrive. Peter's entry into the tomb and discovering the "rolled up" cloth immediately negates the possibility of grave robbers. Then the other disciple (John, and not the John who writes this Gospel) enters the tomb and says simply that he "saw" and "believed," something not yet attested to Peter. Remember that John actually believes without seeing; it will only be Mary who first sees Jesus. And yet we're told he still did not understand that "he had to rise from the dead," a sign that faith comes in stages.

It's important to remind ourselves that the very fact that these early authors would assign such an important role to a woman (remember the patriarchal society in which they lived) is clear evidence that women played a very significant role in Jesus' life, death and resurrection. We'll see later how very uncomfortable Paul is with this fact; but we cannot deny that Jesus embraced women, had them as disciples, assigned them as the only ones to stand at his cross in 3 of the gospels, that a woman is the first to discover the tomb and will be the first to whom the risen Jesus appears. It might seem insignificant to us; but in that patriarchal society, this was earth shattering.

Throughout the diocese we continue our annual Catholic Services Appeal, and I hope you will consider a pledge if you have not already done so. Funds generated in this appeal finance the education of our seminarians, help care for the retired priests, fund the Marriage Tribunal and a multitude of other offices which serve the parishes. Our goal this year at St. Patrick's is $42,350 to pay the assessment and at St. Hedwig's $11,803. I hope to raise significantly more than that at St. Patrick's so we can use the extra to help pay down the debt on the restoration. To date we have pledges at St. Patrick's for $56,335.00.

The Parish Office will be closed on Easter Monday.

We are now beginning the wedding season at St. Patrick's and, with the exception of one weekend, we have a wedding every weekend from May 1 through Thanksgiving. It's great to see all of these young couples coming here to pledge themselves to each other for life. As part of their preparation, they each take a testing tool called FOCCUS which seems to be an incredibly effective tool to help them improve communication skills between themselves. The couples themselves give great feedback on the test. In addition to that and the paper work preparation which we have to do, Mark Alloway (our organist) and Jan Gervasi (our wedding coordinator) meet with the couple to plan their music, ceremony, etc. I also invite all of the couples in for a relaxed evening at the rectory. I invite 4 to 5 couples at a time, drinks at 5:30, dinner at 6:30. It's a totally relaxed evening and a chance to get to know them better and hopefully an opportunity to make them feel

I'm hoping to find a couple of St. Patrick parishioners who might be willing to construct a 20' x 20' stage for our festival. We're hoping it can be built in sections that can link together so that we will be able to easily store it during the year. Holy Trinity Parish is gracious enough to lend us their dance floor so we don't have to worry about that. The stage is 20' x 20' and one foot high. If interested, please contact the parish office. Festival will purchase all of the materials. If we had to rent both of these each year it would cost us over $1,500 per year.

Congratulations to St. Patrick parishioner, Jamie Power, who is finishing his second year of theology studies at St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, and has been assigned to St. Joseph Parish in Warren, under the direction of Father Rich Toohey. Jamie will be ordained a priest for our diocese in May 2016.

A Sunday School teacher asked her class, "What was Jesus' mother's name?" One child answered, "Mary," to which the teacher responded, "Who knows that Jesus' father's name was?" "Verge," a little boy said. Confused, the teacher asked, "Where did you get that?" The child responded, "Well, you know, they are always talking about Verge n' Mary."

I left a meeting and searched for my car keys to no avail, and I realized I must have left them in the car. My husband scolds me constantly for doing that, but my theory is that the ignition is the best place not to lose them. His theory is that the car will be stolen. As I got to the parking lot, I realized his theory was right; the lot was empty. I immediately called the police, gave them my location, confessed that I had left the keys in the car and that it had been stolen. Then I made the difficult call to my husband. "Honey," I stammered (I always call him "honey" in times like this). "I left my keys in the car and it's been stolen." After a long period of silence, he said, "Are you kidding me? I dropped you off." Now it was my turn to be embarrassed. I said, "Well, come and get me.." He growled back, "I will as soon as I can convince this cop that I didn't steal your car."

Wesolego Alleluia! Happy Easter!

....Our faith is not merely in life beyond the grave, but, unlike other religions, it is centered on a person, Jesus Christ. We are invited into the royal household of God; indeed, by grace we will partake in divine love itself. This is the mystery of the Easter Season. We all fell short of the glory of God. We all failed Him. Every one of us is a sinner. However, Jesus is our sin offering. His resurrection is our hope. The mission He gave His apostles has been made our own. We are His flock and His children. He feeds us from this Eucharist and Living Word. Faith in Jesus is loving obedience. That is how we walk in His ways. We may know our own crosses, but we are also promised a crown.

Our Sanctuary Lamp burns this week in loving memory of John Gorski requested by his family, Our Lady's Shrine Lamp burns in loving memory of Mieczyslaw & Felicia Purzycki requested by daughter Harriet and St. Joseph Shrine Lamp burns in loving memory of Amanda Juchno requested by Pete & Judie Pentz. Please remember in your prayers those in the hospital, nursing care, the military and the homebound.

Because of an early deadline for the bulletin, the offertory for Easter will be published in next week's bulletin. Priestly Care & Education update $219.00. Thank you and God bless.

Catholic Services Appeal

Our prayer is that everyone will consider the appeal regardless of the amount of their pledge. We still are short of the assessment goal of $11,083. To date, we received $6,075.00. If we do not reach our goal, the difference will need to be paid out of parish savings. We need your help.

Don't forget Dyngus Day at the 3rd St. Polish Falcons on Easter Monday, April 21 from 3 until 10pm. Admission $3.00. Polish food and also DJ Ken Olowin and The Marvels.

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments—Child Abuse Prevention Month: April is designated as Child Abuse Prevention Month. Sexual abuse of minors is a pervasive societal problem, and only concerted and sustained efforts by all adults in every segment of society can help to protect children and youth. It is every adult's moral responsibility to protect possible victims by reporting the suspected abuse or neglect to the responsible authorities at the Pennsylvania child abuse hotline, Child Line, 1-800-932-0313. To see what the Diocese of Erie is doing to help create safe environments, check out: <http://www.eriercd.org/protectyouth.htm>

Today's gospel tells us that several arrived to discover the tomb in which Jesus was buried was now empty. What does an empty tomb mean for your family? Failure, loss, defeat? Or victory, life and resurrection? Scripture says that he "had to rise from the dead." Families, too, must rise above disappointments and be Easter people all year long.

A Moment of Reflection

Reading I: Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Reading II: Colossians 3:1-4

Gospel: John 20: 1-9

The Easter Gospel ushers us in real life into a realm that we could have never imagined. With the empty tomb we are in the realm of mystery, the mystery of God and God's actions in the world. What we now encounter is God's new creation in the resurrection of Jesus. Living in the transforming power of resurrection hope, we dedicate ourselves in the imitation of Christ to promote a more just, peaceful, and loving world. When was there a time in your life when God surprised you!
