From the Pastor's Desk.....

Today is the Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time. Written nearly 200 years before Jesus by a teacher named Ben Sira (the Greek form of the name is "Sirach") this book was accepted as canonical by the Church even though it never became a formal part of the Jewish Bible. It is also not part of the Protestant Bible. It's not difficult to imagine Jesus reading these words as they echo his own teachings. That humility leads to favor in God's sight and that those who are greatest are those who serve others are certainly familiar themes in Jesus' teachings. The book is filled with wise sayings, often not connected to one another. It's one of my favorite books in the Bible.

Imagine a young person on the eve of a major life event that is both thrilling and daunting, like a wedding. A bride or groom might be intimidated by the anticipated pageantry or the commitment. A wise parent or friend might speak to them much as the author of Hebrews does today. Asking them to consider a similarly thrilling but more daunting experience like entering the military or starting a new job, the friend or parent might say "This is nothing like that. You had reason to fear and feel alone, but this is just the opposite. You have the embrace of someone who loves you, the support of family, the experience of knowing this person with whom you'll now be one." Making the same point, the author contrasts the old covenant made with thunder and fire on Mt. Sinai, a sight that filled people with fear, with the new covenant where we stand with Christ in the company of angels and saints. Rather than fear, this setting fills us with peace.

Sirach recommended humility as a means to win favor with God. Here, Jesus teaches us that it is the route to "esteem" even among neighbors and colleagues. Only Luke records this banquet where Jesus is being closely scrutinized. While the first part of the gospel seems like some rules of etiquette, the second half is typical of Luke—it reveals Jesus' concern for the poor and his attitude toward the rich. He counsels that we should do for those who can't do back for us, and he predicts no earthly honor, but an eternal reward.

The parish office has been closed on the Fridays of July and August and will now be open on Fridays. I am going to meet with the Parish Finance Council and propose that we close the office on Fridays all year. Several parishes in the diocese do that, and I am going to suggest that we do it here also. At present we are open on Fridays from 8:30 AM until noon, and there is very little business conducted.

The St. Patrick's Food Pantry distributed 18,761 pounds of food during the month of June at a cost to the parish of $292,25. We served the smallest number of families we have served in over two years—573. I assume that is because it is summer and that we will see the number increase dramatically once the weather changes. Once again I need to remind you that the actual cost to the parish is nothing because you so generously support this ministry. And remember—God never forgets those who care for the poor.

When she was a pastoral minister at St. Patrick's in the 1970, Sister Mary Fromknecht, SSJ saw a great number of homeless men in the neighborhood. To help them in their plight she founded St. Patrick's Haven, an old home on East 12th St. where 24 men can come in the evening, get a shower, have a clean bed, and leave by 7 AM the next morning. Initially the project was funded by parishioners, but Sister Mary quickly found other avenues of support. The Haven now finds itself in the difficult position that the building they have been using is structurally unsound. As such, they are undertaking a capital campaign to raise the needed money to build a new St. Patrick's Haven on East 12th Street. Construction is underway while the capital campaign is also underway. The parish Finance Council voted unanimously to make a $1,000 donation from the parish to St. Patrick's Haven to help them with this project.

In addition to our own Food Pantry, St. Patrick's also makes a $100 monthly donation to Emmaus Soup Kitchen to help them with their expenses. We are going to begin to send St. Patrick's Haven $100 a month also. Your care and concern for the downtrodden and needy is unmatched in any other parish. We also tithe 10% of our Christmas collection and give it to St. Martin's Center. Many of our parishioners also volunteer at these three organizations. Remember that God overlooks a lot of our faults and failings when we care for the least of his people.

We recently received a check for $848.75 from CROP for our Food Pantry. This is part of a distribution of funds to area food pantries from the annual CROP walk.

I try to notify people of all volunteer positions in the parish in case you are interested. We are presently revamping the schedule for Sunday offertory counters. Teams of 4 people count and bank the offertory after the Sunday 10:30 AM Mass. It usually takes about an hour and a half. If interested, please contact the parish office. I don't know that I will be able to accommodate everyone who might apply, but we'll try.

If you tire of Erie or its weather, you can retire to New York City where you can get into a four-hour argument about how to get from Columbus Circle to Battery Park, but you can't find Wisconsin on a map. Where you believe that being able to swear at people in their own language makes you multilingual. Or where you think eye contact is an act of aggression. Or you can retire to Florida where you eat dinner at 3:15 in the afternoon, where everyone can recommend an excellent cardiologist, dermatologist, proctologist, podiatrist or orthopedist, or where cars in front of you often appear to be driven by headless people. Or you can stay in Erie and enjoy the change of seasons.

Marriage Moments—

“Conduct your affairs with humility.” (Sirach 3:17)
 Who is the more humble—you or your spouse?
 Now that’s a fool’s question! Don’t debate this, just try to defer to your beloved today in quiet ways.

A Family Perspective—

Family life well lived confirms the words of Jesus in today’s gospel, “Those who humble themselves will be exalted.” Commitment, intimacy, loyalty and love are the rewards of humble service and care for one another.

FESTIVAL NEWS 2016

19 DAYS TO THE IRISH FESTIVAL HONEY

Remember the song, "Honey?" She planted a twig and then it grew into a tree and then the angels came and took her away and then his life became an empty stage? Sad, really sad—an actual tear-jerker song.

Well, here's another sad "Honey," song:

"Honey, I want to go the Irish Festival and have some great Irish inspired food, listen to some great Irish music, and maybe pick up some Irish gifts, some gently used jewelry or a nice purse, and find out if we won that trip to Ireland."

"But, Honey, I want to stay home and watch the football game!"

Sad, really sad—and so unnecessary.

Because that exact football game is playing at the Erie Irish Festival Sports Bar on a big screen TV, and although your couch may already have your groove in it, the Sports Bar has a better groove.

Irish Beer—all of your favorites and then some. Harp, Guinness, Smithwicks, and our own Irish Red Ale—cold and crisp and fresh from the tap. And since the wife's off shopping, she'll never know you had a wee taste of your favorite Irish whiskey as well. Yes, technically you have to walk across the sidewalk to the beer tent for the beer and whiskey, but you have to walk to the fridge at home, right?

And, brother, stale chips on your couch cannot compare to our Pub Grub menu. We've got Irish Nachos—warm salty crispy corn chips with our own Guinness Beer Cheese sauce topped with chopped scallions—and if you're really hungry, we'll add some tender, juicy corned beef to that order. Or how about a hot dog—all the way with corned beef, Guinness Beer Cheese, and scallions—oh, man, how about two of those! Or our own signature corned beef balls—you love Stanganelli's pepperoni balls, right? Well the great folks over at Stanganelli's are making us our own signature rye bread corned beef and swiss balls! Only place to get them—Irish Festival 2016. And, we can serve you up a fresh Reuben or Rachel (you know Rachel, right? Turkey and cole slaw on grilled rye.) so you don't even have to walk to the dining tent (we're always thinking of you).

And, if your team's not doing so hot, we have pull tabs so you'll still have a chance to be a winner.

So let's turn that "Uh, uh, Honey Don't" song into a genuine Honey Do song. Watch that college or NFL game in the privacy and convenience of your own sports bar, drinking your favorite beer, munching on great Irish-American fusion pub grub, safe in the knowledge that our gently used jewelry booth doesn't take credit cards.

Gary and Becky Johnson, Festival Chairs, can be reached at gjohnson@brotolocsouth.com or beckykj@neo.rr.com. Don't let your life be an empty stage—come on down to the 2016 Erie Irish Festival and fill it up.

BAKE SALE:

Who doesn't like COOKIES, PIES and CAKES for dessert! If you would like to donate to the Festival Bake Sale with all proceeds benefitting St. Patrick's Church, we would love to have them. All items do not need to be brought to the Festival on the first day. It would help to have some items arrive on Saturday and Sunday. They are also looking for volunteers to work the booth. Please contact Mary Beth Wachter at 454-6140 for more information.

RAFFLE TICKETS:

IRELAND

Don't miss your chance to win a trip to Ireland for two or $3,000 in cash. Raffle tickets have been sent to parishioners. Please return them via the offertory basket, mail or drop them off at the rectory. YOU may be the winner! But you can't win if you don't turn in your tickets. Last year's winner was a member of St. Patrick's! The office has more tickets if you need them. Let's make this year's sales the best ever!

PROGRAM SPONSOR:

If you would like to sponsor an ad for the festival booklet, there are forms in the back of the church. It is the perfect opportunity to memorialize a loved one or to say congratulations to someone who has entered college, high school or a new job. Any reason to give credit and attention to a loved one! Check it out! Deadline has been extended to September 3rd. That is the absolute latest that you can get your ad in because we go to print that week!

KNIGHTS AND LADIES OF ST. PATRICKS:

During the Irish Festival and weeks leading up to the Irish Festival, The Knights & Ladies of St. Patrick will be collecting school supplies for the City of Erie Schools. Bins will be set up in the back of the church.

CALLING ALL VOLUNTEERS:

"To Volunteer to work this year's Irish festival, go to the website: <http://www.signupgenius.com/findasignup>. Under the "Search By Email" section, type in the email address - fischers6@roadrunner.com. After clicking "Search" you will see the box to click for the Irish Festival sign-ups. Scroll through the days, times and areas for volunteering and check the slots that you wish to work. You will be asked to enter your contact information and will receive email reminders about your time slots."
