From the Pastor's Desk.....

Today is the Feast of All Saints and we hear from the oft-misunderstood Book of Revelation which presents a great vision of those saved in and through Christ, the Lamb of God who died but now lives forever. This last book of the New Testament originates in apocalyptic thought, which often appears in times of persecution. Apocalyptic literature intends to give people hope by presenting God bringing the divine plan to completion, often with a final battle between the forces of good and evil and ending with God's triumph over the twin evils of sin and death. The author wrote at a time of Roman persecution of Christians. Immediately prior to today's reading, John described 144,000 persons to be marked with a seal as servants of God. This symbolic number (of which apocalyptic literature is filled) is derived by repeated multiplication of the numbers ten, symbolizing perfection, and twelve, representing the twelve tribes of Israel. They have remained faithful in the face of suffering and death and so share in God's final salvation.

While our second reading is attributed to John, most scholars doubt that he is its author. The reading describes those who believe in and enter into a personal relationship with Jesus and that they share a oneness with God similar to that enjoyed by Jesus.

Our gospel, the Beatitudes, found only in Matthew, opens the first of five sections of Jesus' teaching in Matthew. This first discourse presents the key elements of behavior of those who accept and belong to the kingdom of God. Remember that this author was a Jew writing to a Jewish audience. The formula "Blessed are..." appears often in the Old Testament, especially in Psalms and Wisdom, and is frequently used to describe the wise, who understand and follow God's teaching. The Beatitudes, like other aspects of Jesus's teaching, focus on inner motivations and attitudes as the core of right conduct. Matthew presents Jesus as the final interpreter of Moses's law. Jesus does that by moving from external adherence to the law to an internalized change in the individual.

During this month of November we particularly remember the dead in our prayers and Masses. Today's bulletin contains a listing of those deceased loved ones whom you wish remembered and their names will be on the altar throughout this month.

Did you know that you can now go online and search for baptismal and marriage information from Ireland between the late 1700s and the early 1900s. All of the church records have been put on line and are available. Most state records of births, marriages and deaths were lost in a fire; but the church records have been preserved and are now on line. There are several ways to search for them. Easiest is to google "Irish birth, marriage and death records on line" and several options will come up for you.

During the month of September, the St. Patrick Food Pantry distributed 16,880 pounds of food at a cost to the parish of $928.78. The recipients were 830 families which included 485 elderly people and 1,103 children. Thanks to your ongoing generosity, we continue to be able to render this service to those in need.

Someone asked me recently if the parish provides any assistance to parents to assist them in paying Catholic school tuition. We do in two distinct ways. First, there is a scholarship fund at St. Peter Cathedral Elementary School to assist any Saint Patrick parishioner who attends there. This scholarship was established as a trust from the estate of a parishioner who died in the early 1990s. As of late, we have been giving families a grant of a thousand dollars a year to help offset the costs of tuition. Unfortunately, this trust does not apply if our students are attending another Catholic elementary school in the city.

Secondly, each parish in the city is assessed a set amount each year as a Catholic school subsidy. At St. Patrick's last year we paid $37,750 and this current fiscal year our assessment is $44,397. As such, we have the fourth highest Catholic school subsidy in the city. Only OLP, St. George's and St. Jude's assessments are higher than ours. That money is then used by the diocese to offset the costs of tuition at Catholic elementary and secondary schools.

Remember if you want to send a child to one of the Catholic schools in the city and are a member of St. Patrick's Parish, you pay the same tuition as would a parishioner at the school you want to attend. Because we do not have a Catholic school of our own, you are eligible to attend one and not have to pay a higher rate.

The Knights and Ladies of St. Patrick recently made a $500 donation to our Food Pantry and donated an additional $300 to help a family in the parish.

Have you ever considered including your parish in your estate planning? At St. Patrick's, we have the St. Patrick Foundation which exists solely for the maintenance and upkeep of the church. None of that money can be spent on operating expenses for the parish.

The Young Adults group will meet for a Happy Hour tonight (Sunday) at Erie Brewing Company.

A very distraught woman went to see her doctor. "I hurt absolutely everywhere," she said. The doctor asked her what she meant. To demonstrate she poked her side with her finger and yelled "Owww." Then she poked her leg. "Ouch." She poked the palm of her other hand. "Ahhhh." She poked her forehead. "The pain is everywhere," she cried. "What can I do?" The doctor gave her a quick examination and said, "Well for a start you can stop poking yourself like that. You have a broken finger."

The month of November is dedicated to prayer for the souls of all who have died.

We Remember Them

In the rising of the sun and in its going down, we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of the winter, we remember them.

In the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.

In the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them.

So long as we live, they, too shall live, for they are now a part of them, as we remember them.

* The Community Outreach Group is a caring, non-profit group of individuals involved in being of service to our less fortunate neighbors in our community. We seek nothing for ourselves-only to serve our community's needs as best we can. We seek to share coats, clothing, a hot lunch, and a contagious smile. Our volunteers collect clothing throughout the year and on the first Saturday in December we host a Clothing Distribution Party to give it all away. We are supported through community donations and generous businesses.
