FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK.....

Today is the Feast of All Souls. Yesterday we celebrated the Feast of All Saints. Our first reading is the ever comforting excerpt from the Book of Wisdom. It is one of my favorite passages in Scripture, so much so that I don't even need to look at the text to proclaim it. Listen carefully to this reading. It brings incredible comfort to those who are saying farewell to a loved one and it should comfort all of us in the knowledge that those who have gone before us to the grave are in the hand of God and "no torment shall touch them."

Our second reading is from the Letter of Paul to the Romans. We often say "If you do this, I will love you," but Paul reminds us that is not God's way. In sending the greatest gift of all, his Son who would die for us, God set no conditions. His love is given freely; all we need do is accept it. God did not wait for us to clean up our act of get it all together before saving us. No, God took the initiative and completely transformed us. God reached into our unworthiness and made us worthy. The "hope" of which Paul speaks is assured. We need not bite our nails or worry. Christ gave his life for us even when we were still steeped in sin and wholly unworthy.

Today's Gospel follows the Bread of Life discourse that comes on the heels of various signs performed by Jesus such as the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. The miracles drew crowds to him, but he chastised them, saying that they sought him out not for himself but for his miracles. All this led him to assert that he is the Bread of Life and that those who come to him will neither hunger nor thirst. Then we continue with today's reading declaring that he rejects no one who comes to him because those who come to him were sent by the Father. We need to understand the words "anyone who comes to me" as referring to those who have faith in him. Jesus then adds that his only agenda is to do God's will. In him we see the paradigm of Christian humility for he, the Divine Son, submits his will entirely to the will of his Father. Embedded in this text are three key ideas: (1) a call to faith in Jesus via his miracles, his teachings; (2) the mystery of the resurrection which is promised all believers; and (3) Jesus' hope filled assertion that God desires all human beings to come to eternal life.

I hope you like the format of the bulletin. We have such beautiful churches that we may as well enjoy some of their beauty.

Today is the Feast of All Souls, a moment to particularly remember the deceased. A listing of all deceased family members, etc. whom you wish remembered in Masses during November is included in today's bulletin. These people will be remembered in every Mass offered at both parishes during the month.

Bishop Persico has directed all pastors, deacons, school principals, head of Religious Education as well as representatives from the Parish Council and the Finance Council to attend a meeting on the Pastoral Planning Process for the diocese. The agenda for the meeting will include a detailed explanation of the process, including its steps and schedule; clarification of the directions and assumptions for planning; explanation of expectations from parishes and schools; plans for regional listening sessions; conversation around hopes, fears and issues that need attention; and an opportunity to ask questions, share concerns and give advice to make the process better. Once that meeting is concluded, I will do everything I can to try to explain to you what is happening.

All of our parishes are now in the process of compiling detailed information on our membership, ie., how many members are under the age of 5, ages 5-14, 15-17, 18-20, 21-34, 35-49, 50-64 and over the age of 64. We also have to break down the ethnicity of the parish into White, Black, Hispanic, Vietnamese, Korean, etc. In addition, we have to give detailed information on staff and their work; on the parish plant, any property we own, fundraising and how that is done. All of this information is going to Meitler Associates in Hales Corners, Wisconsin, who are assisting the diocese in this process. Once again, I will try to keep you apprised as things progress.

Once this initial meeting is over, we should know a time-table for the process.

We all know that some of this conversation is not pleasant and will most likely result in the closing or merger of parishes and schools, but we have to face the hard facts that our numbers are down dramatically and the number of priests has fallen sharply. There are now only 108 of us and 70 of us are over the age of 60. That sentence alone is a frightening statistic. We should have bitten the bullet on these issues 20 years ago, but we failed to do that.

Remember that if you attend Mass at a parish other than your own, you can give your envelope and on Monday it will be mailed to your parish.

Once again, a reminder that, starting today, the only weekend Mass at St. Hedwig's is the Saturday evening 4 PM Vigil Mass. There is no Sunday morning Mass. There is an 8 AM and a 10:30 AM Mass each Sunday at St. Patrick's. Saturday vigil Masses cannot be celebrated earlier than 4:30 PM, but Bishop Persico has given a temporary indulgence to St. Hedwig's Parish to celebrate the Vigil Mass at 4 PM. The reason being that people would not go into that neighborhood after dark during the winter months.

An ironworker nonchalantly walked the narrow beam fifteen floors above the city sidewalk. Though strong winds were blowing and a heavy rain was falling, he exhibited no fear whatever. When he came down to the sidewalk, a man who had been watching him from the ground said, "I was really impressed watching you up there. You were so calm. How do you do it?" "Well, as a matter of fact," he replied, "it's nothing. I used to drive a school bus until my nerves gave out."

We Remember Them

In the rising of the sun and in its going down, we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of the winter, we remember them.

In the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.

In the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them.

So long as we live, they, too shall live, for they are now a part of them, as we remember them.

MINISTER SCHEDULES for November have been mailed and/or emailed . There are extra copies in the Trinity Gift Shop. Hard to believe but we will be starting the schedule for December and for Christmas. Please let us know your availability for the month and in particular, for Christmas. Thank you for your ministry!

Alone during the Holidays? Not everyone looks forward to the upcoming holiday season. If you are widowed, divorced or separated, and find it difficult adjusting to single life, you are cordially invited to attend a special event, "Coping With Life Alone during the Holidays", hosted by Catholic Charities' Transitions Ministry. Please join us on Sunday, November 23rd at St. Mark Catholic Center, 429 East Grandview Blvd. in Erie from 2pm – 4pm. A brief program, discussion and short prayer service will be offered, followed by light refreshments. Please RSVP by Thursday November 20th by calling (814) 824-1265, or by email at: familylife@erieRCD.org . There is no cost for this program; a goodwill offering will be accepted.

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments

Online Safety Tips for Parents & Kids: CyberTipline Fights Internet Crimes against Children - The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and other government agencies all work together to fight Internet crimes against children. They've established a "CyberTipline," a reporting mechanism for cases of child sexual exploitation including child pornography, online enticement of children for sex acts, child victims of prostitution, and unsolicited obscene material sent to a child. Reports may be made 24 hours a day, seven days a week - online at www.cybertipline.com or by calling (800) 843-5678. A Moment of Reflection

Reading I: Wisdom 3: 1-9

Gospel: John 6: 37-40

Being connected with all departed souls is something the earliest believers celebrated as they honored martyrs. What is clear in today's Scriptures, is that God loves us and desires us to be with him through eternity. Let us pray for departed souls. Let us ask them to pray for us. What special way do you have to remember your beloved dead?

NEED PRAYERS?

Please call Mary Alice Hartwell at 454-5908 to have your prayer intentions placed on our joint parish prayer wheel. Please be assured that your prayer requests will be treated with respect and confidentiality.

CHURCH WOMEN UNITED will celebrate World Community Day with a prayer service on Sunday, November 2 in St. Patrick's Church. For more information call Gail Smith at 833-9484.
