From the Pastor's Desk.....

The Sunday between Christmas and New Years is always observed as the Feast of the Holy Family. Ironically, it is traditionally the lowest Mass attendance weekend of the entire year. Today's readings are confusing as we have alternate readings to select from. We are going to read from Sirach and Colossians.

Sirach's words are as contemporary as the latest news. His words suggest both that society is structured on family life and that God designed it to work that way. The love and care we show our parents not only pleases God; it also determines the quality of our relationship with God. The final section speaks of care for parents in their dotage, and the care of aging parents is made so important that it helps to expiate our sins.

There are appropriate clothes for every profession and occasion. Paul is telling us that life in the family is no exception. What fits that time and place is not something we already carry within ourselves; rather, it is something we put on the way we would don a coat to shield us from the cold. Paul is telling us that harmony in the home is the result of grace that comes from outside ourselves. We don't manufacture compassion, kindness and humility; we put them on as we receive them from the Lord.

There is an odd tension in this gospel that wrestles between presenting Jesus as a pious Jewish youth who observes the Law and submits to the authority of his parents and a self-assured young man who rather ominously suggests that his heavenly Father has a stronger claim upon him than the flesh and blood parents who seek and find him in the temple. This story is told only in Luke's gospel. Note that Mary and Joseph search for Jesus for "three days," a clear reference to Jesus being in the tomb for 3 days. We very much get the sense that Jesus is at home in the temple and is surprised that his parents are searching for him. Mary does not hide her disappointment and hurt as she asks "How could you?" Jesus replies with his own question that seems to challenge his parents assumption about who is parenting whom. Jesus has another Father and his house and his work have already laid claim to him.

We bid a very fond farewell to our long time parish secretary, Kay Cline, who is retiring. I can't tell you how much I hate to see her go. She is not only the most efficient person I've ever worked with, but she's a genuine joy to be around. I think I speak for the entire parish when I tell her how grateful we are for her years here and how we all wish her well in her retirement. Janine Carch-Sliker will now be the office manager and Ann Halupczynski will work part-time as the bookkeeper.

The parish office is closed this week for the holiday and will reopen on Monday, January 4. I am here the entire time and if there is an emergency, you can reach me at 454-4032.

Bishop Persico and about a dozen priests will be here for dinner on New Year's Day. We do not get together for purely social gatherings anymore. Instead our gatherings are always about business, so everyone really enjoys getting together in a relaxed gathering like this.

During the month of November, our parish Food Pantry distributed 17,062 pounds of food at a cost to the parish of $1,180.05. That month we served 755 families which included 1,036 children and 415 elderly. Thanks to your generous support we are able to operate this program always in the black.

We are close to completing our pledge payments pledges of $1,124,926, we have had payments to date of $1,008,620. We are paying the diocese $10,000 per month plus interest to pay off what we borrowed ($780,000) to undertake the work. We now have that balance down to $220,000 and are paying it from the festival and the CSA.

We are also wrapping up our 2015 CSA pledges. With original pledges of $95,682, we have had payments to date of $86,547.

If you were at the Christmas Eve 5 PM Mass, you know what a madhouse it was. There were people standing everywhere in church; but it was a great experience seeing so many in that room. The other Masses also had very good attendance, many of whom are not parishioners; but I'm glad to have seen the way you welcomed them here.

Friday is New Year's Day and the Feast of the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God, and a holyday of obligation. There are no Masses at St. Hedwig's and the only Mass at St. Patrick's will be on New Year's at 9 AM.

Have you ever thought of including your parish in your estate planning? St. Patrick's is one of the most beautiful churches in our diocese, and we have established the St. Patrick's Foundation to provide for its ongoing maintenance and upkeep. Monies in this fund cannot be used for operating expenses; but only for the maintenance of the church. Your including the foundation in your estate planning can make a big difference. Hundred year old buildings require constant care. You can also name the parish as a beneficiary in a life insurance policy.

Saint Martin's Center is looking for volunteers for their Food Pantry. If interested, contact Rita Zawacki at 452-6113, ext. 215 and she will explain what they need. You can volunteer as much or as little as you like.

If it had been three wise women who went to Bethlehem to see Baby Jesus, they would have asked for directions, arrived on time, helped deliver the baby, cleaned the stable, made a meal and brought some practical gifts.

Marriage Moments

The feast is over but the visiting and company may continue through the Christmas holidays. Although generally a happy time of family togetherness, Christmas can also be a time when stress causes short tempers. Be mindful and merciful with your beloved these days when you might be together in extremely close quarters.

A Family Perspective

Holy Family

Today's gospel contains this truth about parenting: "but his parents did not know." One of the reasons parenting is so difficult is because our children don't tell us everything. If the Holy Family had trouble with their teenager, why do we think it will be easier for us?
